

The interim final rule addressing vests on school buses is a rule that we can live with. It should not be changed and should be voted as a final rule.